

News

Macomb County
Office of Public Affairs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 26, 2005

Contact: Phil Frame
Office of Public Affairs
586-469-5125
phil.frame@macombcountymi.gov

Book sale to benefit senior services' Adult Day Care Center

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County residents searching for some new, low-cost books are encouraged to attend the Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services book sale fundraiser from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10.

The event, to benefit the Mount Clemens Adult Day Care Center, will be held at the VerKuilen Building lobby, Entrance A, 21885 Dunham Road, Clinton Township.

The Reader's Digest "Books are Fun" program, which is sponsoring the event, will give a portion of the proceeds to the Adult Day Care Center.

The Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services is sponsored by the Macomb County Board of Commissioners and receives county funds for all services, as well as funds from the Area Agency on Aging 1-B, state appropriations, the Older American Act and the Michigan Department of Human Resources.

#